Use the image above and your knowledge of U.S. History to answer parts (a), (b), and (c).

a) Explain the point of view of the political cartoon (be sure to identify the specific group this cartoon came from).

b) Explain ONE specific historical event that led to the development of the point of view in the political cartoon.

c) Explain how a defender of the historical event chosen in b would be justified.

BORN TO COMMAND.

KING ANDREW THE FIRST.

OF VETO MEMORY.

HAD I BEEN RECALLED.

CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES of America

THE NATIONAL IMPROVED BANK

Handwritten notes:

- Judiciary of the U.S.
- Interests of the Whigs
- Read retroes Bank veto
- effectively killing the Bank!
- In the Constitution & only benefited Northern industry!

Handwritten analysis:

This cartoon's P.O.V. is anti-Jackson. As he is portrayed as a 'king' figure & clearly ~~not~~ comes from the Whig party, who attacks Jackson as a ruler who has overstepped his Constitutional authority!

One historical event that led to this cartoon's P.O.V. is Jackson's veto-ing the B.U.S. charter & then removing all federal funds from the bank.

A defender of Jackson's Bank Veto would be justified in arguing the Bank was not specifically authorized in the Constitution & only benefited Northern industry!
